Good Morning Sam!

Sorry to bother you but my message light is now permanently blinking? There are no messages but the indicator light will not go off. I have picked up the receiver several times but it remains intermittently blinking. What do you suggest?

Sam,

Thanks for your prompt response and for solving both the light problem and adding the email notification. I heard your message--what a great service.

THANKS AGAIN!

Good Afternoon!

Thank you for getting me all set up at ext. 0025, bldg. 5, suite 202. When setting up my voicemail, I realized that my message indicator does not light up. Also, when reading the "new users" guide, it gives me the option to receive an email informing me when I have a new voicemail. I would like to set that up, if possible?
