And, it's ultimately Mike's decision...but supporting a motion that requests more economic studies be done is benign as mentioned in an earlier email.

Hi Steven -

As long as your testimony relates to MOF's motion (Item 2) you should testify. It's Item 1 that is of concern because the Board has not reviewed or taken a position.

LG,

I rely on your experience and sound wisdom. MOF and I hung out together Saturday night. He mentioned he will be speaking at the Tuesday Committee meeting and could use all the support anyone that wishes to have more evaluation on MEG's proposal to speak out. It sounds correct?

My two cents. And if the minimum wage passes my 1 cent ☺

I'm just checking to insure that it does not require a HMD Board vote for me to express our support of

ITEM NO. (2)
14-1371-S2

Motion (O'Farrell - Blumenfield - Krekorian - Martinez - Wesson for Fuentes) relative to an instruction to the CAO's Office of Economic Analysis, v CLA and the Economic and Workforce Development Department, to procure an economic analysis of the minimum wage proposal and include: ecor of the pros and cons of categorical exemptions and other impact mitigations for specific industries, and how the citywide minimum wage will be implemented.

I will do my best to speak to the Committee and express our support of the motion above.
