The Hollywood Arts Council and I invite you to attend STAYIN' LIVE! 2014 - a summit of theatre, community and government leaders to create the assured future of live theatre in Hollywood. This year's theme is “Coming Together” and will feature Los Angeles City Councilmember Mitch O'Farrell as the keynote speaker. He will discuss some of the exciting opportunities that he and others have created for live theatre since last year's summit.

The Summit will take place on Saturday, November 15th from 1pm to 4pm at The Renberg Theatre at the Los Angeles LGBT Center, 1125 N. McCadden Place, Hollywood, CA on Hollywood Theatre Row. There are two free parking lots for the Renberg, and also street parking.

We created a movement at last year's summit that community leaders are excited about. Stayin' Live! is now supported by City Councilman Mitch O'Farrell, City Councilman Tom LaBonge, the Hollywood Arts Council, the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce, and the Media Improvement District BID. This Arts Council, the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce, and the Media Improvement District BID. This discussion cannot happen without your presence. You are a vital part of this community and we want your input as we create possibilities for a sustainable future for live theatre in Hollywood.

I urge you to mark your calendar and RSVP to stayinlivehollywood@gmail.com. This event is open to anyone who might be interested. Please invite those who are committed to keeping live theatre alive in Hollywood.

It is our intention to create a structure at this year's summit to bring together interested parties to assure the future of live theatre in Hollywood. This event is about Hollywood as much as it is about live theatre. We want to keep theatres alive and get more community members attending these theatres.
